Happy Independence Day!

One of the most important goals I had when I came to Washington, D.C., was to keep my constituents regularly informed of what I was doing--both in the Capitol and in the 47th District. With the 113th Congress now three-quarters complete, I thought it would be a good time to share with you my most recent tally of accomplishments since I was sworn-in on January 3, 2013.

This is by no means a comprehensive list (click on the image below for a larger version), and if you want to get more information, I strongly encourage you to visit my website at lowenthal.house.gov. My weekly e-newsletter, "The 47th Flyer," is also a great way of finding out what I am doing. And, I would love to have you as a regular reader. You can subscribe by clicking here.
